ARMY PLANS AT WASHINGTON.

Gen. Otis to Have Forty Thousand Men to Work With—No Volunteer Regiments Wanted, but Individual Recruits Are.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's Manila cable says that one of the most prominent Filipinos in Manila received a verbal message this morning direct from Aguinaldo, who is at Talaric, instructing him to make as complete a report as possible to the War Department, and the political situation at Manila. Aguinaldo wants to obtain from a Filipino source knowledge concerning the strength of the American army, health of the troops, and what Gen. Otis's intentions are regarding the carrying on of operations during the rainy season. The Filipino to whom the message was sent has been steadfastly friendly to the Americans. He has been frequently requested to join Aguinaldo, but has always refused to do so.

The fact that the rebel leader has sent such a request is capable of a double interpretation. Possibly Aguinaldo desires to know what his chances would be in the event of his surrender, or it is possible that he wants to obtain information as to the ports opened by order of Gen. Otis through which he might obtain provisions and other supplies for his army, and at the same time ship the produce of the country.

The request for information, coming as it does direct from Aguinaldo, settles the reports that have been circulated, to the effect that he had been assassinated by the friends of Luna in revenge for the killing of the latter by some of Aguinaldo's men, presumably by his order.

Under Otis's instructions, the gunboats engaged in blockading duty will not allow vessels with regular clearance papers to pass the blockade, but the issuing of an order to this effect was delayed, owing to the fact that the opening of the ports would enable the insurgents, who are in control of them, to collect duties on articles imported. There was great distress at several of the closed ports, owing to the lack of food, and business was at a complete standstill. These facts influenced Otis to issue the order, he considering that the situation is now sufficiently favorable to permit restricted business being done at the ports.

The order simply permits the landing of food, and a close watch will be kept to prevent filibusters from landing arms, ammunition and other supplies for the rebels.

A severe typhoon is blowing, and this is delaying the sailing of vessels which want to take advantage of the opening of the ports.

The situation remains comparatively quiet to the south and east of Manila, where recent fighting took place. A rebel scouting party today met a patrol of the Wyoming regiment, and in seeking to escape, fled into the arms of a battalion of the Fourth Infantry.

with Senator Hoar and other Americans, with the object of securing concessions to Aguinaldo and promoting peace.

There will shortly depart from Manila a prominent man of Manila, who is going to Washington with a similar object, as representative of the Manila Autonomist Peace Committee.

BRIG-GEN. OTIS.
His Views Regarding the Philippine Situation are Requested.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
ST. LOUIS, June 28.—A special to the Republic from Washington says: "The Secretary of War has sent a request to Gen. H. G. Otis at Los Angeles to come to Washington for a conference in regard to affairs in the Philippines. The President desires to have Gen. Otis explain at length his views upon the military situation; all matters within his knowledge concerning the Filipinos, and the progress of the insurrection."

"When questioned as to the report that Brig-Gen. H. G. Otis is to succeed Gen. Alger, the officers at the White House said there is no foundation for the report."

PLANNING AN ARMY.
It is Proposed Otis Shall Have Forty Thousand Men.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Secretary Alger, Adj.-Gen. Corbin and Col. Bird, Assistant Quartermaster-General in charge of transportation, had an hour's consultation with the President today relative to the question of reinforcements for Gen. Otis. A definite decision has not been reached to continue recruiting men at all the recruiting stations for service in the Philippines, and Secretary Alger said, when he left the White House after the conference, that Gen. Otis would have 40,000 men when the rainy season closed for a resumption of active operations.

There are seventy recruiting stations in the United States, and enlistments are to be taken at all of these stations. The enlistments are to be for service in the regular army, and recruits are to be organized into regiments or battalions, as required, and direct to the Philippines. No organizations as such are to be accepted, if sufficient recruits can be obtained by regular enlistment. Gen. Corbin said the enlistments would be for three years, although the law for the creation of the provisional army of 35,000 men in the Philippines provides only for such a force until 1901.

Arrangements are to be made at once for increasing the transportation necessary to get the additional troops to the Philippines. The decision to reinforce Gen. Otis by the end of the rainy season is interpreted to mean that active campaigning will cease until the bad weather ends. That the time and operations will proceed to places in close proximity to our lines where the insurgents may have congregated in force. By remaining quiescent under good shelter during the rainy season it is hoped the health of our troops will be preserved, and the danger from climatic fevers reduced to a minimum.

Gen. Otis has cabled to the War Department that he has the skeleton organizations of two or three regiments which he proposes to raise in the Philippines. At the War Department this was said to mean that Gen. Otis has the officers for these regiments selected, and that they are ready to be filled with enlisted men. How many of these can be secured from the volunteer regiments in the Philippines is not stated. It is stated at the War Department that the recruits now being enlisted at the rate of 1000 a week are to be organized into regiments, and that the volunteers will be transferred to the volunteer service, if it should be determined to raise additional troops.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Volunteers will not be accepted in organizations. Secretary Alger is determined to adhere to that rule. In looking over the act of Congress, he has concluded that the authorization "at large" indicates a purpose on the part of Congress to follow out the plan successfully adopted by the military department.

It is the present purpose to disregard State and local lines in securing the recruits and welding them into organizations. Regiments will be composed of the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, BEAT TO WINDWARD.

THE COLUMBIA DEFEATS THE DEFENDER HANDSOMELY.

Gives Latter a Two-Minute Handicap and Wins by Eight Minutes in a Thirty-Eight-Mile Race.

Cleves Maneuvering for the Wind on the Part of the Old Boat-Yachtsmen Jubilant Over the New Race's Showing.

Twenty-second Round of London Chess-Five Long Shots Win at St. Louis-Fresno Race Meet.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NEW LONDON (Ct.) June 28.—In a thirty-mile race to windward today, the new yacht Columbia beat the old cup champion Defender eight minutes, besides giving the old champion a two-minute handicap. Yachtsmen from New York and hereabouts are jubilant, for the yacht's sterling qualities must come out in a race to windward.

The race was from Brenton's Reef lightship, off Newport, to New London, a good thirty-eight miles. The Defender was given a two-minute start. Thirty-two miles of the long stretch of water was a beat to windward, with such a stiff breeze blowing that neither yacht cared to carry a working topsail, and it was in this kind of work that the Columbia showed such a long lead, averaging a quarter of a mile each minute more than the Defender. The water was very rough, but the new boat rode very easily, and did not buffet the waves as much as the Defender.

A stiff breeze from the southwest kicked up quite a squall outside this morning, and put white crests on the waves in the inner harbor. The Defender hoisted anchor shortly after 10 o'clock, and ran down the east passage, under her jib. Her mainsail was hoisted on the mainmast, and Capt. Rhodes saved down as far as Castle Hill to get a look at the weather outside, and looked about the bay while waiting for the Columbia. The crew of the Columbia hauled anchor at 11:15 o'clock, and she was towed down as far as Castle Hill, where the hawser was cast, and the yacht beat out to sea under three lower sails. The Defender was inside Brenton's Reef lightship, looking along under jib and mainsail, waiting for her rival. There was a pretty heavy sea, and as the two yachts plunged along, clouds of spray were thrown into the air from under the hulls, and fell away to leeward. The weather was rather threatening at the start, and a light rain compelled the crews of the two yachts to don their oilskins. The showers were not heavy, but lasted nearly all day.

The Columbia ran up to the Defender rapidly, and continued on the starboard tack until the lights were passed. The Columbia was at that time 200 yards to leeward of the Defender, and half her length ahead. At 12 o'clock both boats tacked around the lightship. They continued along the Columbia luffing up to take a haul on the jib halyards. At 12:20 o'clock the Defender broke out her staysail, and the race was on. With the Defender to the windward, and the Columbia to the leeward, the Defender's bow on the next tack. The shift in the wind helped the Defender considerably, and when, at 1 o'clock, the Columbia tacked to starboard, about a mile off the Point Judith whistling buoy, she could have almost forced the Defender about, but the latter tacked within 100 feet of the former under her lee bow. Capt. Barr could not stand having his wind taken by the Defender, so he fetched about at 1:05 o'clock and stood up along shore on the port tack. Then the Columbia began to gain slowly on the Defender, and at the same time got into the wind better.

In twenty-five minutes the new boat had worked around the Defender's bow and was to the windward of her. With plenty of wind, the Columbia and Defender held down the shore on the port tack, the former leading, and to gain. Off Noyes Point, at 2:20 o'clock, the Columbia was over half a mile ahead and steadily increasing her lead, and when she finished the race, off the end of Fisher's Island, the distance between the two was nearly a mile.

At 3:25 o'clock the Columbia took her final port tack, this time fetching well by Race Rock. The Defender held on to the harbor tack, and then turned in after the leader. The boat proceeded up the harbor and anchored.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] SOUTHAMPTON, June 28.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Shamrock has arrived here in tow, and is now lying off Hythe pier. She will be taken to Fay's docks, this evening, in order to be completely overhauled before her trials.

READY FOR REGATTA.
Yale and Harvard Boat Crews Ready for Today's Contests.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] GALE'S FERRY (Ct.) June 28.—The finishing touches have been applied, the hard practice is over, and the six crews which will represent Yale and Harvard on the Thames in the big regatta, are practically waiting for the start Thursday. The close of the training period finds all of the oarsmen of the two universities in perfect shape physically, with no indications of overtraining.

The work on the river has been more than ordinarily delightful this year, on account of the cordial feeling which has from the first existed between the rival regattas. The utter lack of secrecy, the open and frank methods of practice and the exchange of courtesies between the Yale and Harvard settlements have done much toward putting intercollegiate rowing on a new footing. The contests are awaited with much interest. In view of the fact that the managers have conceived, and for the first time this year are about to carry out, the scheme of a regatta. The events of the meet will be crowded into one day, in order to meet the convenience of visitors. The contests will begin in the forenoon Thursday, and will find a climax in the evening, with the big race between the eights of the two universities. Wind, weather and water permitting, the university crews will row their race at 10:30 a.m. The course will lie upstream for two miles. Immediately after this race, the freshmen crews will go on for a two-mile pull. Late in the afternoon the varsity race will come off.

Harvard has the best of the betting for two of three of the contests. However, last minute changes have been made in the shell of the Yale four, two heavy oarsmen having been succeeded by lighter men, and the boat moves more rapidly. As a result a hot race is looked for. On form the Harvard freshmen and the superior crew of the Yale youngsters, and their shell has splendid speed. With the two big eights the situation is different. Harvard is reported to have made faster time on the river than Yale. On the other hand, the Yale eight is markedly the superior of the Harvard crew. The course of the varsity race is the old Yale-Harvard course, which was abandoned when Cornell became a third crew. It starts in the west river bank, makes straight for the navy yard, where, with a turn almost insignificant, it reaches straight down the river to the big railroad bridge. The official arrangements have been satisfactorily completed. Observation trains will be run on either side of the river, affording good views of the races. Following are the statistics of the Harvard varsity four:

Stroke, F. D. Blake, 190, aged 23, height, 5 ft. 11 in.; weight, 160 pounds.
No. 3, J. D. Kernan, 190, aged 21; height, 5 ft. 11 in.; weight, 170 pounds.
No. 4, F. Perkins, 180, aged 21; height, 5 ft. 11 in.; weight, 165 pounds.
Bow, L. Endicott, 190, aged 20; height, 5 ft. 9 in.; weight, 155 pounds.
Following are the statistics of the Yale's varsity four:

Stroke, Alexander Cameron, aged 20 years; height, 5 ft. 10 in.; weight 157 pounds.
No. 2, J. C. Brooke, aged 19 years; height, 5 ft. 10 in.; weight, 178 pounds.
No. 3, P. L. Mitchell, aged 20 years; height, 5 ft. 11 in.; weight, 170 pounds.
Bow, R. M. Patterson, aged 21 years; height, 5 ft. 8 in.; weight 156 pounds.
Coxswain, E. P. Chittenden, aged 20 years; height 5 ft. 8 in.; weight 122 pounds.

RACES "SIZED UP."
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NEW LONDON (Ct.) June 28.—Similar as it may seem, there appears to be perfect unanimity of feeling at the Yale and Harvard headquarters tonight as to the possible outcome of the three races which the college crews will row tomorrow.

Both agree that Yale, having accidents, has better chance in the great varsity race that will be rowed for four miles down the Thames, just before sundown. It is also admitted by both that the freshmen crews will not have the same advantage over Harvard in the race of two miles up the river in the forenoon, while as for the four-oared rowing, the varsity six over a two-mile course over the freshmen race, Harvard has certainly the preference.

The facilities for viewing the races are far better than ever before. Instead of one observation train on the right bank of the river, there will be long trains on either bank. The police arrangements this year are also improved, through the kind offices of the treasury department, tonight a large pleasure boats have taken up positions near the bridge, and other large craft will also be present. The races will start at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The course is two miles up stream with the wind on the river, the four-oared race will be finished by noon. The third race will start opposite the Harvard quarters, and the crews will pull four miles to the bridge, in the midst of a cluster of steam yachts and excursion steamers.

OPPOSITION IN BASEBALL.
Rival Clubs to Compete Against National League Clubs.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] ST. LOUIS, June 28.—The Post-Dispatch today printed the statement that a well-known baseball man of St. Louis said this morning: "A story comes from Chicago to the effect that a new association on the lines of the American Association is to be formed, the National League folks being in with the play as a matter of fact. The Chicago story is the first bluff sent out by the National League to head off a movement that has been on foot for some time, and which means that the National League is to have a competitor in all its leading cities. The National League is a house divided against itself. Freedman hates Brush and Brush hates Freedman, and Soden and Rogers have a thorough contempt for Hart and the Holcomb, and the feeling is reciprocated by the latter trio.

"There is planning and scheming on all sides, and out of it next year will come a rival association to the present National League. This, in fact, will be the last year that any set of men will have a mortgage on the national game, and there will be rival clubs in every city in the National League where the patronage will warrant anything of the kind. Four cities certain to have competition next year are St. Louis, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia.

"The association will have nothing in common with the National League syndicate, and its motto will be 'Down with syndicates, baseball and the slavish reserve rule.' In St. Louis the men back of the new association have already secured grounds, thirty-four blocks in the center of the city that those now occupied by the present St. Louis club."

MISHAPS AT SHEEPSHEAD.
Lothario Loses and Byron McClelland Goes and Kills Himself.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NEW YORK, June 28.—The racing at Sheepshead Bay today was spiritless. In the only stake on the card, the Tidal, for three-year-olds, Lothario was the favorite, although Half Time and Filon D'Or were heavily backed. The start was prompt and good, and Filon D'Or and Half Time went out to make the running. They set a hot pace to the stretch, where Half Time swerved as they turned and Filon D'Or went on and won as he pleased.

In the fifth race Byron McClelland threw his rider at the lower turn, made the circuit of the track and then ran into the fence and drove the rail through his body, killing himself almost instantly.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] BUFFALO (N. Y.) June 28.—The Canadian Derby, which was the feature of the opening of the Highland Park Jockey Club meeting at Fort Erie, this afternoon, was won by William Hendrie's "Martinus Colt." Four thousand people saw the Futurity winner assume the lead at the fall of the flag, and gradually draw away from his company during the journey of a mile and a half. Pasalo sat his horse out at a steady pace, and could never get within striking distance of the winner.

The books held Martinus at 2 to 3, an exceedingly liberal figure in the company, all but Pasalo and Hold On having been scratched to Mr. Hendrie's colt. Result, a half furlongs, selling: Ocie Brooks won, Watercock second, Windward third; time 1:09.

FREE TO SUFFERERS.
This New Cure for Kidney, Bladder and Uric Acid Troubles.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles. Swamp-root has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of the Los Angeles Times who have not already tried it may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in the Los Angeles Times, and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular 50-cent and $1 sizes are sold by all first-class druggists.

Promptly Reaches the Seat of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases.

In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obstinate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved.

Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that these are the most difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim to cure such real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the source from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed for such a remedy, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. MAGNATES MEET.

RAILROAD MAGNATES CONFER AT NEW YORK.
Important Changes are Discussed by the Officials—Vanderbilt Lines and New York Central's Consolidation schemes are Considered at the Conference.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, June 28.—Important conferences of railroad managers are in progress in this city. Among those now here are William K. Vanderbilt, Samuel W. Reilly, President Ledyard of the Michigan Central, President Condit of the Nickel Plate, President Casper of the Pennsylvania, Norman B. Ream of Chicago, James J. Hill of the Great Northern, and Oscar G. Murry and John K. Cowen of the Baltimore and Ohio. It is said they have come here to meet and consult with J. Pierpont Morgan and other prominent financiers in Wall street, and many important changes in railroad management are looked for as a result of the gathering.

Interest seems to center upon the Vanderbilt lines, and the belief is growing that, not only is the Boston and Albany to come into the New York Central's fold, but step by step other consolidations of that system with roads in New England are to take place. The present plan contemplates the absorption by the New York Central of the Boston and Albany, the Boston and Maine, the Fitchburg, the Maine Central and the Triunty lines.
Already the Lake Shore, the Michigan Central, the West Shore and the Nickel Plate have been taken by the Vanderbilt group. Despite this, there is abundant substantiation in trustworthy places of the report that the Big Four and the Chesapeake and Ohio, as well as the Chicago and North-western, the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line are to be consolidated with the Central. It takes time to accomplish this task, but the plan is matured, and as fast as the transactions can be accomplished, the scheme of consolidation is being worked out.

The ultimate disposition of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, so far as the Central is concerned, will be to incorporate it in the New York Central. The New Haven, it is known, wanted to lease certain parts of the Boston and Albany, which would give it territory, and while there was a hitch over the terms, the Central has, in these reports, been true, stepped in and taken all. It is known that negotiations are on between the New Haven and Central for a consolidation of the properties, and it is generally believed that the New Haven in the end will have come into the New York Central.

Mysterious Sick Woman.

A young man called at the Police Station this morning at 2:45 o'clock and asked the services of a physician, saying that there was a sick woman in a Broadway lodging-house. The young man refused to give any particulars, but it was learned from other sources that two men and two women, who appeared to be drinking heavily, had tried to get room at a commercial-street lodging-house, shortly before, failing in which they secured rooms on Broadway, one of the women becoming sick soon after entering the room. Clerk Gridley told the young man to take the woman to the Receiving Hospital if she was in need of medical attendance, but this he refused to do. Gridley then obligingly called up Dr. Stinchfield, who consented to go to the Police Station and accompany the young man to the sick woman's room. On the doctor's arrival the young man informed him in a whisper to go, and then hastened off in another direction in order to avoid being interrogated, afterward following the doctor to the location of the room.

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK
Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y.
Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y., writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at some thing outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before I took the cold which came so near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds and feel like a new man. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and was pronounced in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what you call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

TEACHERS COMING IN.

THE RUSH OF VISITORS TO THE CITY WELL BEGUN.

First Trainload Arrived from Colorado Yesterday—Thousands of People on the Way—Great Promise.

The great rush of teachers and other visitors to this city is now at hand. This was shown by the arrival of a large number of people yesterday, constituting the advance guard of the army of teachers and others drawn here by the coming National Educational Association Convention. There were five coaches of people from Denver on a special train which arrived yesterday morning at La Grande station, constituting but a portion of the Colorado delegation, the remainder of whom will be coming in during the next week. There were about 125 teachers on the special train. They had been met at San Bernardino by C. O. Valentine and G. G. Johnson, representing the reception committee, who chartered them into the city, distributing guides to the city on the way. The citizens of San Bernardino met the delegation at the train with a supply of flowers and fruits, which it is proposed to continue throughout the period of incoming of the teachers.

The regular trains on both overland roads brought in large numbers of teachers and others who had been picked up at many points along their lines, and it seemed to be evident that there is to be a flood of people not connected with the educational association who are going to take advantage of the reduced rates. The machinery of the local committee and of the hotels, for providing for the visitors, were thus given their first try yesterday, and everything worked smoothly. Registrations at the hotels were very heavy.

Today the Santa Fe road will bring in two trains of eleven coaches each loaded with visitors. These consist of no organized delegations, but of individuals, and the presumption is that a large proportion of them are not teachers. These people have been picked up from many scattered localities. The local committee is receiving word from many points of the departure of delegations from various parts of the country.

F. Q. Story has called a meeting of the Reception Committee, of which he is chairman, for Saturday afternoon, to complete preparatory work in hand. The Reception Committee met yesterday and made considerable progress in outlining the work before them. So far as known, arches will be located as follows: Single arches on First, Second and Third streets where they cross Broadway; a double arch on Fourth and Broadway; single arches on First, Second and Third streets where they cross Spring street; single arches on Franklin and Spring at the Bullard block, near Hoegge's on Main, and at the Van Nuys Hotel. There will be five rows of colored lights on the four sides of Central Park, with many suspended lights through the park.

The Fruit Committee will meet Monday next at 3 p. m., at the Chamber of Commerce building. The committee is desirous of securing a large amount of fruit for free distribution. The Flower Committee has a hard task on hand and needs the cooperation of all persons having flowers to spare. The committee asks that flowers and palm leaves be sent to the Chamber of Commerce building up to the 10th of July. The committee has a depot at No. 259 South Main street, where the flowers will be assorted and sent to the various headquarters and assembly places.

The Hotel Committee will move its headquarters today from the Chamber of Commerce building to the business headquarters, at No. 429 South Spring street. Collections are still coming in slowly, yesterday having amounted to about $150.

A meeting of New York Central and Boston and Albany Railroad representatives, it was stated yesterday at New York, was held for the purpose of discussing the question of leasing the Boston and Albany road to the Central.

HOW FORTUNES ARE MADE.

Valuable Hints That Every Man Must Follow to Attain Success.

In these days of competition, when the struggle for existence is so keen, a man must have an active brain, quick perceptions and a strong physique in order to succeed.

No one knows just what the work of the future is to be, but all of us know the kind of men and women who will do it. Active, alert, industrious, courageous, healthy—these are the men and women to take their lessons from success rather than failure.

Foremost in importance is a strong, healthy body, for out of the strength of the body develops the energy of the mind. A nervous and run down, have thin blood, pale lips, dragging pains about the loins, constipated or dyspeptic, accompanied with headache, nervousness, irritability, and a general feeling of depression, you cannot expect to do much.

If you have any of the above symptoms do not deceive yourself or remain in ignorance while you are being dragged down by disease. The successful manner in which disease is treated and cured at the Homo-Alo Medical Institute has brought success and happiness to hundreds of people whose lives were almost ruined by disease.

The physicians of this institution are graduates of the most noted American and European colleges, and should not be classed with quacks that infest the State of California.

If you can get the old man, ambition and confidence by putting yourself in their care, you will not owe it to yourself to do so.

Men who are suffering from nervous debility, contracted ailments, physical or complete loss of vital force, unnatural drains, blood poison, etc., should consult Dr. Sterling, chief consulting physician of the institute. They positively guarantee to cure cases, by drooping, various other cures in five days.

Patients can arrange to pay only when they are perfectly cured, or if preferred, can pay in easy monthly payments. Their charges are reasonable and variable according to the extent of the cure. Their guarantee is good. References, commercial agencies, or any business house in Los Angeles.

Hundreds of patients are cured at home. If you cannot call, write for full particulars and information you ought to know. Consultations are absolutely free. This method of treatment is the result of a quarter of a century of careful study and successful practice. When consulting a physician, it pays to see the best. All letters answered in plain envelope and strictly confidential. Call or write. Address Homo-Alo Medical Institute, No. 245 South Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal.

PROSECUTION ABANDONED.

Petty Larceny Complaint Against Mrs. Greenough Dismissed.

The prosecution of Mrs. Jennie Greenough on the charge of petty larceny was abandoned. On motion of Deputy District Attorney Chambers, Justice Austin yesterday dismissed the complaint issued some time ago by the commander of Banner No. 1 of the Ladies of the Macabees, of which Mrs. Greenough was a member.

Greenough's arrest was due to the suspicion that she was the thief who was purloining articles of apparel, money and other valuables belonging to her sister bees. Suspicion was so strong that a trap was set by detectives and two marked silver coins were subsequently found in Greenough's pocket which had mysteriously been transferred to it. Mrs. Martin's purse. Mrs. Greenough was consequently accused of the theft of the exposure of the scandal caused her to have an attack of nervous collapse. A week or two later she was arrested on the charge of the theft of a watch and a ring from the house of Justice Austin. She was held in her trial was continued from time to time for various reasons, until yesterday Mr. Chambers moved to dismiss the case.

He held the case on the ground that thereby he best subserved Mrs. Greenough had many friends who could not believe her guilty unless she was afflicted with some mental disease. There was great reluctance on the part of her lodge sisters to have her prosecuted, so it was at length decided to drop the case, and the court graciously acquiesced.

A Jug and a Beer Glass.

John Mullen entered a saloon on the corner of First and Los Angeles streets last night and got into an ugly temper. He got into an altercation with Charles Engelke, the proprietor, finally picking up a beer glass and striking him in the face. Engelke's right cheek was cut open and he went to the Receiving Hospital for repairs, while Mullen was locked up.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known by the medicinal name of figs, and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dissolving colds, headcolds and fever, gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., only. In order to get its beneficial effects it is essential that you remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

FRUIT-EXPRESS COMPANIES CONCEALING THEIR CARS.

Assessors not Quite Sure of Their Authority to Assess Rolling Stock—Los Angeles County the Refuge for the Smuggled Cars.

Trouble is brewing for the fruit express companies doing business in California, and it has not long been brewing, for the climate must come before the end of the week the trouble has been brought on by an alleged attempt on the part of the companies to avoid assessment on their rolling stock, and the present prospect is that the effort, if such there has been, will be without avail.

There seems to be a feeling among certain county assessors of the State that the Continental Fruit-Express Company and the Earl Fruit Company have tried to conceal their rolling stock, in the hope that it would not be assessed. Assessor Caldwell, however, has reached Los Angeles county, and County Assessor Alexander Caldwell is not on the trail of the companies, although he is in doubt as to whether he has authority in the matter.

As far as can be learned, no assessment has been levied on the rolling stock of the fruit express companies, and the neglect seems to be due to a lack of knowledge as to whether the assessors have authority to assess the rolling stock of the fruit express companies. In the northern part of the State the agitation has been taken on a more serious aspect than in Southern California, and this condition of affairs, it is alleged, has caused the fruit companies to rush their cars into Los Angeles county, in the hope that their absence from the northern counties would be a means of letting them off paying taxes. If this is the case, the companies will be that they have failed, for Mr. Caldwell is determined to levy on them, if he finds that he is authorized to do so.

On the other hand, it is found that the State Board of Equalization has jurisdiction in the matter, that body will take immediate steps to assess the express companies on their rolling stock.

It is the lack of knowledge on the subject of the authority to levy the assessment, that is keeping the matter in abeyance, but today an ultimatum will be issued by the State Board, and the levy will follow immediately. Mr. Caldwell has advised with Deputy District Attorney Wilbur on the question, but that official is holding back an opinion until the State Board shall have met to give its official opinion. The meeting will be held in Sacramento, and will be attended by Assessor Berkey of Sacramento county.

The latter official is secretary of the Continental Fruit-Express Company to appear before him, and the citation was returnable yesterday. Three of the members of the State Board were to have attended the conference between the secretary and the assessor, and it is probable that the result of that hearing will in some manner affect the decision of the State Board at its meeting today.

Mr. Caldwell said yesterday: "I am of the opinion that the authority to levy an assessment upon the rolling stock of the express companies is the property of the State Board, but I am not sure of it. However, I find it is the business of the county assessors to make the assessment, and I will at once take steps to bring the companies to terms. What means I shall use I cannot tell, but you may be sure that the corporations will be assessed if it is within my power to assess them."

The local Assessor was in communication with Mr. Toland of the State Board yesterday. Mr. Toland, being at Sacramento, was expected to make a decision as to authority in the matter which would be reached last night, but at a late hour he telephoned to Mr. Caldwell that it would be a go over until the meeting of the board today. One section of the Political Code authorizes the board to assess the rolling stock of the railroads of the State, which are operated in more than one county. Under this section the board has been assessing Pullman cars, which are leased to the railroads. It is claimed that the fruit express cars are also leased to the railroads, and that the board is responsible for them. If this is the power to assess is vested in the State Board, if, on the contrary, the cars are run in the county, the county assessors, it is the contention of the fruit companies, it is the business of the various county assessors to assess on the cars which were within the limits of their respective counties at noon on the first Monday in March, of course, it is not known by any one save the railroads and the fruit companies just what the cars were on that date, and for this reason the assessors or the State Board would encounter a great deal of difficulty in levying proper assessments, but the officials of the corporations, either railroad or fruit express, will be cited to appear and give information in either case, and the information, which will be secured from the records of the companies, will be based on the various assessments.

In view of the fact that the law requires that the cars shall be assessed in the counties in which they were on the first Monday in March, the moving of cars from one county to another will not prove a means of getting off the assessment, for even if all the cars are run in one county, where the Assessor is known to have no authority, the assessors still have the power to assess the cars for the time the assessment was due.

More than eighty members in roll, it is this which has caused the recent activity on the part of both the State Board and several of the assessors. The only thing to be gained by the corporations in moving cars from the counties in which they are sure to be assessed into those in which they are not, is a possibility of avoiding the levy, beyond that getting of the property in case they refuse to pay or to avoid assessment.

It is customary for a large number of the fruit cars to stand on sidetracks in Los Angeles county, but it would seem at the present time that the cars are being moved to other counties, for the rolling stock than usual in the county. According to Mr. Caldwell, however, Los Angeles county will prove a poor refuge for the cars, for the county assessors are authorized to levy on the rolling stock.

Mr. Caldwell said yesterday: "I would be glad to have an opportunity to assess the fruit cars. The income which would result would make a far addition to the county tax list, and if the cars can be taxed it will prove of benefit to other tax-payers. The assessment of the cars would, however, cause a great deal of work, as the rate of assessment would vary with the different school districts. The State and county tax amounts to 1.33 per cent., the school tax amounts to 2.50 per cent. The school tax ranges from 65 to 1.35 per cent., and the cars would have to be assessed with reference to the school district in which they were on the first Monday in March, but taking the lowest rate of school tax, that of 65 per cent. of the entire tax on the roll-

MORGAN'S FIELD DAY.

FREQUENTERS OF A NEGRO DIVE FINELY PUNISHED.

Sixty-five Out of a Total of Sixty-seven Cases Disposed of—Most of the Defendants Found Guilty—Fined or Imprisoned—A Good Day's Work.

Justice Morgan had a regular field day yesterday in the trial of the sixty-seven variegated persons charged with disturbing the peace in Simpson and Brown's Los Angeles-street dive last Sunday morning. When court adjourned for the day, sixty-five of the sixty-seven cases had been disposed of, and $167 in fines and penalties had been collected—not a bad day's work, taken in connection with the other regular Police Court business which the justice had to attend to.

When the court resumed yesterday morning, Attorneys Davis and Morrison appeared along with the motley crew of defendants, and withdrew from the cases of all except Simpson and Brown, the dive-keepers, who are accused of conducting a disorderly house, and two of the visitors, who still insisted upon a jury trial. All the rest of the culprits were willing to accept of the justice's decision, and the court without the aid of counsel.

Davis and Morrison entered a plea of not guilty for Simpson and Brown, and the court, after a brief demurrer and denied the motion to dismiss the complaint. The request for a jury trial was granted and it was set down for July 7. The case was on for the other two clients, who are charged with disturbing the peace, and the justice, after a brief hearing, should be taken up at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

The court then took up the hearing of the sixty-five cases which had been disposed of with the service of counsel. First there was a general weeding out process. The complaint against a number of the defendants was dismissed without hearing, by consent of the prosecution, as it appeared that they were innocent spectators drawn by curiosity to the dive, and that they had no part in the disturbance. The remainder pleaded not guilty and a goodly number pleaded guilty and threw themselves on the mercy of the court, and the justice, after a brief hearing, sentenced them to the county jail for a term of not more than thirty days.

Sufficient evidence was furnished by the prosecution to show that a disturbance had taken place in the dive, and that the defendants were in progress when the officers swooped down upon the place and pulled the whole house down. The justice, after a brief hearing, sentenced the defendants to the county jail for a term of not more than thirty days.

The penalties inflicted were fines ranging from $1 to $5, with the alternative of a like number of days' imprisonment. The justice, after a brief hearing, sentenced the defendants to the county jail for a term of not more than thirty days.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

San Pedro has a brand new ice plant, a brand new asphaltum mine, and is about to have $15,000 worth of brand new wharf bonds. These are marks of coming greatness, and need only the company of a brand new sea serpent to make that beach resort truly great.

Oxnard, the new beet-sugar town, and all things concerning it, are built upon the same old line. Over $1,000,000 were invested before there came a cent of returns, and now a $600,000 land purchase follows. These are the facts, and others like them, which should be trumpeted to all corners of the land. With millions in sugar, other millions in fruit, and room for still other millions in tobacco, tea, silk and their manufactured products, even the cautious investor ought to see an opening for business. The Oxnards here strictly business men.

It is refreshing to read that the people conducting the cannery and drier at Ventura consider the health and comfort of the women and girls who do the work. It is painful to visitors at many of the packing and canning establishments to see how little is done in this way. Much mauling sentiment is wasted on ill-kempt horses and cattle by good-looking people, who could find a burning need for all their spare sympathy in working for decent quarters and decent surroundings for the poor girls and women who find it necessary to cut or pack fruit.

The lover of dried figs who is forced to confine himself to the California article will hail with delight the fact that the people of Fresno and Niles have domesticated or acclimated the European fertilizing insect known as the blastophaga. There are many and crying sins charged up against the train candy fiend, and pop-corn terror, but they all fade into nothingness before the deeper-dyed sin of selling what looks and tastes like ancient tangles, packed in a new box, for "fine, fresh Smyrna figs." Stomachs and pocketbooks will be much healthier for the blastophaga.

The pluck of the Redlands capitalists who have already sunk $10,000 in some twenty wells that have proved to be without water, and who are now continuing work on wells in another locality, is of the order that wins. For such men, dry years, curb-stone prophets, calamity shouters, no hard business reverses have no appreciable terrors. They read and believe in the Bible at Redlands, and the Good Book says there are "waters under the earth," and to such plucky natures Redlands is the whole earth with all its troubles thrown in. It is a decided privilege to compliment such courage.

The Stockton Mail gives up a column of more or less valuable space to the story of one John York, a teacher in that city, wherein York tells of being at a spirit seance and having a talk with Isaac Kallioh, Sr., who was Mayor of San Francisco, and whose son shot Charles de Young. Either the whisky there is doctored or the penetrating microscope has got in its deadly work. Stockton Slough breeds all sorts of things from Jim Budd to a Bloomer social, but if like Kallioh and others of his ilk are to come up, it is high time to establish a shotgun cordon, and run a fast freight up there with carbolic acid.

IN HERMOSILLO PRISON.

AMERICAN WOMAN SUFFERS AT THE HANDS OF MEXICANS.

Claims Her Killing of a Brutal Tormentor Was Accidental—Story of Terrible Indignities and Neglect—Four Years' Sentence.

An American woman, Mrs. Evelyn Collier, languishes in one of the small, hot cells of the prison at Hermosillo, State of Sonora, Mexico, and she writes to The Times that the story of her sufferings may be read in her native land. Mrs. Collier states in her letter, dated June 26, that she is 24 years old, and went to Mexico a little over a year ago to meet her husband, who is interested in mining there. He had no settled place for her, she says, and she therefore went to live with her brother, William Frost. Of the affair through which she was thrown into the old Mexican jail, Mrs. Collier gives the following history:

"Last December we went to Ures and lived there all winter. I am of a retiring disposition, and therefore I kept quite closely to the house. I understood that very few Mexicans were there, and customs, so did not care to associate with the Mexicans and there were no other American ladies there. On March 21, at 7 o'clock in the evening, my brother went to the store to buy some things for breakfast, and left me alone. He had been gone but a few minutes when someone came to the door and knocked. I asked what was wanted, and he answered: 'Come in.' I told him 'no,' and once more asked what he wanted. He answered by insulting me in the most vulgar and brutal fashion. I instantly ordered him to go away, but instead of doing so he kept on insulting me and ordered me to open the door. I refused, and again ordered him away. He became very angry, and exclaimed: 'I'll kill you.' I know you've got money. I'll kill you and get your money."

"Cursing and calling me all the vile names he could think of, he threw himself against the door. There was no way to fasten it, except to prop it with a small stick we had for that purpose. It was not a secure fastener at the best of times; but that night I had just carelessly leaned it up against the door, for I knew my brother would be gone but a few minutes, and did not feel afraid because no one had ever molested me before. When he threw himself against the door the bench fell down and he rushed into the room. I sprang up to hold the door, but too late. He caught me by the shoulders and whirled me round against a table that my brother used for a work bench. It fell and scattered tools all over the floor. The Mexican reached for a pistol that lay on another table, 'snatching it by the end of the barrel, and saying he would kill me. I was thoroughly frightened, for I knew he intended to murder me."

"I caught the handle of the pistol in both hands and tried to wring it out of his hands, at the same time trying to push him out of the room. I had pushed him almost to the door when, by an almost superhuman effort, I succeeded in wringing the pistol from his hand and shoved him out. As he went out he caught my elbow and jerked me forward. My arms straightened out, the pistol struck the door and accidentally went off. It was a 44-caliber Remington. I never looked to see what he had done, but hastily shut the other half of the door. I was frightened almost to death. My left thumb was powder burned, also the middle finger, in the end of which a gash was cut."

"When my brother returned he found the Mexican dead. He at once notified the officials, and they came and arrested us both, and put us in prison, and left us without anything to eat until noon the next day."

Mrs. Collier says that her real troubles commenced on April 3, when they set her brother free. No one can eat the prison food and live, she says, so her brother brought her something every day, but the jailer, out of pure meanness, would go away until everything was cold, and it was often 2 o'clock p.m. before she got her breakfast, or 10 p.m. before she was given supper. The guards gathered in front of her cell and insulted her, threw rocks through her windows, and abused her in every way. The jailer, according to Mrs. Collier, had a pile of wood nailed inside her door, so that she could not fasten the door, and was thus left exposed to the insults of the lowest set of ruffians on earth. Her brother appealed to the judge, and the wood was removed every day before dark.

The trial was held, and Mrs. Collier was sentenced to four years in prison. Appeal was taken to the Supreme Court and a month ago she was removed to Hermosillo. She writes that it was a hot day, but they placed her on the rear seat of a small carriage with one guard beside her and two facing her, all armed with rifles and pistols. They compelled her brother to sit with the driver, and crowded her until she could scarcely breathe. In the jail, she says, she found conditions worse than at the one from which she had been taken. Sometimes she is given no water for three days. Her husband, she claims, does not know what has become of her, and her brother has spent all his money to help her, but to no avail. She says she tells the simple truth, and could fill volumes with the story of her terrible treatment. Her cell is so hot that she is always wet with perspiration, but she is given no change of clothing, and consequently is ill. An appeal is made by her for money with which to relieve her condition.

FATALLY BURNED.

Careless Handling of Gasoline Causes Mrs. Rivers' Death. As the result of trying to fill the reservoir of a lighted gasoline stove, Mrs. Vernie Rivers, wife of John Rivers, a Southern Pacific brakeman, was fatally burned yesterday. The accident happened at No. 128 Avenue 20, East Los Angeles, shortly before noon. Mrs. Rivers was preparing the noon-day meal for herself and three children, who were at school, when the gasoline in the stove tank gave out, and she tried to replenish it without knowing the precaution of extinguishing the fire. The result was an explosion. Her clothing was ignited, and before neighbors could reach another the flames, she received burns which proved fatal a few hours later. The East Side fire company saved the building, which was only slightly damaged. When the children returned from school they found their mother in the agonies of death. Mr. Rivers, who was absent on his duties at Bakersfield, was telegraphed for. Neighbors cared for the unfortunate woman until death relieved her sufferings at 3:30 o'clock. The body was taken charge of by Undertaker Paul. The coroner will probably hold an inquest over the remains today.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.
Los Angeles, June 28, 1899.
MONEY IN GERMANY. The money markets in Germany seem to be tending to stringency again. Immense capitals are tied up in government and industrial securities. In no country of the world has the bank been so developed. The Imperial Bank rate reached 6 per cent. In November, 1898, was reduced to 5 per cent. January 17, 1899, to 4 1/2 per cent. and on May 4, 1899, to 4 per cent. The present advance is near. Current events seem to indicate that Germany has not yet emerged from the financial difficulties which had threatened to become extremely acute at the end of last year, says the American Broker.

DRIED FRUIT FIRM. Drying of apricots will begin at once, indeed it is now in progress. None are offered yet. A month ago buyers were in the market with an offer of 8 cents for any amount of apricots. A car or so for forward delivery may have been made at that price. Now buyers are bidding up apricots, and the price has been made as high as 8 1/2 cents for any number of cars. This is the market for an unlimited number of cars at that price this week. Whether the offer will be good in ten days or not, no one can say. This buyer looks for a reaction when first orders are filled.

OPENING A MARKET FOR FIGS. The New England Grocer speaks of a visit to Boston of a representative of a California fig house who was introduced to a California fig in a dried state. This is what the New England paper says:

"This fig has long grown in profusion in Lower California. It was brought there by the Franciscan monks away from the vineyards of the East, which was a wilderness. The black fig trees grew and thrived and multiplied, but no use was made of it until quite recently, when it was found to be while different in flavor from the Oriental fig, very delicious.

"We saw and tasted some of them in the dried form. They are perfectly black, but they are unmistakably figs. Their flavor is delicious, and an attractive thing about them is that the skins are very tender, whereas the skin of the Asiatic fig is rather tough.

"There are several products of the black fig that are valuable for medicinal purposes, all of which cannot help growing very popular. The dried figs are put up in packages of various shapes and sizes, and are very popular, and as they are sterilized they cannot spoil.

"Then there are sweet pickled figs, in glass jars very delicious and delicious as a relish with fowl, game and meats.

"Figine is another product of these figs blended with wine, fruit, spices and sugar, which makes a delightful mince pie, perfectly digestible.

"Then we have fig marmalade, which is simply superior. California figs are perfect, which is not only a delicious and dainty confection, but it possesses medicinal properties that render it valuable for children."

The Boston editor, of course, means Southern California when he speaks of Lower California. He is correct as to the value of figs. They are valuable fresh or dried.

GENERAL BUSINESS TOPICS.
WHAT THE CIRCULATION SHOWS. According to the last treasury report, there was $384,500,000 of gold in the country. It is evident that the loss of a few million dollars to Europe is not only more gold to the United States, but also more gold to the United States.

Deputy Assistant United States Treasurer, New York, but holds more gold than any other country. While the vaults of the Treasury contain $228,000,000 of gold, the amount estimated to be outstanding is $724,000,000, fully one-half of which is held by banks. It is known to every person who keeps in touch with the country's finances that therefore the Treasury was placed in a bad position during gold-exporting periods, as the custom was to make withdrawals by means of greenbacks. The result was that the Treasury's stock of gold was reduced. What might be considered a remarkable circumstance, with this large stock of gold outside of the Treasury, is the fact that all but about $200,000,000 of the paper money is also outstanding. This country has the enormous sum of $1,100,000,000 of paper money, all of which seems to be in circulation.

What might be considered a remarkable circumstance, with this large stock of gold outside of the Treasury, is the fact that all but about $200,000,000 of the paper money is also outstanding. This country has the enormous sum of $1,100,000,000 of paper money, all of which seems to be in circulation.

It is known to every person who keeps in touch with the country's finances that therefore the Treasury was placed in a bad position during gold-exporting periods, as the custom was to make withdrawals by means of greenbacks. The result was that the Treasury's stock of gold was reduced. LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

LOS ANGELES MARKETS.

LOS ANGELES, June 28, 1899.
Eggs are steady at previously quoted prices. Eastern fresh continue to come in and sell readily. Carefully candied; they are good stock.

Butter is without change. The presence of strangers who are now coming in, and who will number about 15,000 in several days between July 10 and 15, may create a scarcity of fresh and put prices up.

Potatoes are scarce for the time being, and prices are higher. The growing crop is promising well, and an easier market is looked for later on.

In vegetables there is a tendency to a price advance. Green beans, tomatoes, cucumbers and corn are cheaper.

The live-stock market is easier, and rather lower prices are looked for in a few days. Hogs are in demand, being firm at 5 cents on foot for the best.

Shipments of citrus fruit to June 28 show aggregate 5914 cars, the movement for a week being 121 carloads. Fancy Covina Valencia brought $5 per box on Tuesday in New York. Lemons are scarce here, and the demand these days is good.

There is a good demand for new dried apricots at 8 1/2 cents in car lots, but holders want more. Peaches will probably bring about the same price. None are on the market yet.

There are not many and no radical changes in the fresh fruit market. There are no grapes in. Black cherries seem to be done. At the car lots were made at 50 to 60 cents for common plums and 75 to 80 for better varieties. Tragedy prunes sold at $1. Peaches brought 60 to 85 cents for the general run, common to good common, and Bartlett, too green, however, were held at $2. Apricots sold at 3 1/2 to 4. Berries show no material change. Blackberries brought 81 per bushel for common, but fancy berries are with 9 cents wholesale, but common sell at 5 retail. Raspberries are still scarce and sell at 10 to 15. Logan berries are on foot at 50 cents for good lots.

Policeman Talamantes arrested a man who was haranguing the crowd at the corner of First and Los Angeles streets last night on a charge of obstructing the sidewalk. At the Police Station the man registered under the name of Hard Tack.

The decision of the referee in the bankruptcy case of Charles T. Paul was yesterday reversed by United States District Judge Wellborn. The plaintiff prayed that certain property, consisting of a horse, wagon and harness, be exempted, which was granted.

Coroner Holland held an inquest at Garret's yesterday morning on the body of Simon Menghini, the Austrian who committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart on Tuesday morning, because the girl with whom he was infatuated would not consent to marry him at once. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts already published, and unless friends or relatives appear to claim the body, it will be buried at the expense of the county.

HOLMAN TOOK LAUDANUM.

Carpenter, Out of Work, Said He Was Ready to Die.

The desk clerk at the Police Station received a telephone message from the Fashion Livery Stable on East First street about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, asking that the patrol wagon be sent to that place for a man who had taken laudanum with suicidal intent.

The wagon was sent and the man who wanted to die was found standing in the front door. The stableman said that the man had been hanging about the place all day, finally buying 10 cents worth of laudanum, which he had swallowed.

He was put into the patrol wagon and taken to the Receiving Hospital where he gave his name as Mike Holman. He said he is a carpenter by trade, but has been out of work for some time and has no money. He took the laudanum, he said, because he is tired of life and ought to die.

He refused to give any information about himself, or where he lives.

Dr. Stinchfield, who had been summoned, applied the stomach pump with such good results that the man was soon out of danger. He was resting comfortably last night and will probably be all right this morning.

Evidence against C.C. Rottman, proprietor of the Palace saloon, and his barkeeper, Robert McGraw, on trial for alleged violation of the Sunday closing ordinance, was heard by Justice Austin, who reserved decision until today.

SLASHED WITH A KNIFE.

A Plotic Fracas Ends Up in a Cutting Scrape.

F. Starr and George Mead, employees of Heywood Bros., wholesale furniture dealers at the corner of Main and Seventh streets, had trouble yesterday afternoon, and during the fracas Starr inflicted several slight knife wounds on his opponent, the most serious of which was a slash across the bridge of the nose. Mead went to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were attended after which he swore to a complaint against Starr. The latter made no attempt to evade arrest, and was soon arraigned before Justice Morgan.

The men were reticent about the cause of the trouble. Mead said that they had had a falling out, when a fight followed and Starr used the knife on him. A friend of Starr's said that the latter had first been attacked by Mead, and only used the knife in self-defense. Starr was released on bonds to appear this morning at 10:30 o'clock to answer to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Fits and Burned Powder.

Arthur Milton, a boy living at the Hotel Pleasanton, fell in a fit at Second street and Broadway yesterday morning. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he quickly recovered. Later in the day young Milton shot another boy named Reuther in the face with a blank cartridge exploded in a 22-caliber pistol. Young Reuther was booked at the Receiving Hospital for medical treatment, but as Acting Police Surgeon Stinchfield was busy saving the life of a would-be suicide, the lad was sent to Drs. Hicknell and Moore to have the burnt powder picked out of his face.
